Mr. Pete Seeger
Box 431
Beacon, N.Y. 12508

Dear Mr. Seeger

It is my pleasure to inform you that the Livingston College Association of Graduates has nominated you to receive its Honorary Alumnus Award at our annual reunion dinner scheduled for Saturday, September 26, 1987 at 6:00 p.m., at Livingston College in Piscataway, New Jersey.

The Association annually selects individuals to receive this award who, among other characteristics, exemplify the mission of Livingston College through their active involvement as agents of social change in society. Your life, your commitment and work, undeniably represent the best of what we at Livingston have tried to do since we opened our doors in 1969.

The members of our Executive Board found your long association with the cause of labor in America especially appealing in view of the fact that nearly all of us are from working class families and we probably could not have attended college had there been no Livingston. Several of us now work for unions and were inspired to do so while at Livingston by Labor Studies Professor Wells Keddie (the 1984 Honorary Alumnus awardee). I must admit some embarrassment that we have been so tardy in recognizing you as "one of ours" by virtue of your well-known efforts to further the causes of peace, civil rights, justice for working people and a decent environment.

I have enclosed several of our newsletters so that you may judge for yourself that Livingston alumni have effectively integrated political reality into the usual social doings of most alumni groups.

We very much hope that you and your wife can join us on September 26 in the Livingston Student Center's College Hall, when we would like to present you with your award. You're welcome to say a few words, or sing a few, or both -- whatever you choose to do. The press will undoubtedly be interested in whatever you do decide to do and we will follow your instructions on how to handle this aspect.

Should you desire overnight accommodations, they can easily be provided at the nearby home of one of our alumni or faculty.

You may respond to the address on the letterhead, or call the alumni office at 201-932-7474 for more information. My home number is 201-545-1193, my work number at the Rutgers faculty union is 201-932-2278.

Thank you for your consideration of this invitation.

Sincerely,
Chris Berzinski

Spooks By Don Evans

This world premiere mystery/comedy marks the return of Don Evans, author of past Crossroads hits, One Monkey Don't Stop No Show, The Trials and Tribulations of Brooker T. Brown, and A Lovesong For Miss Lydia. A successful writer and his wife, a "buppie" couple from New York City, decide to buy the "big house" on the plantation where his ancestors were once slaves. The fun and the mystery begin when they find the house is haunted.

The Lynton Scholarship Fund benefits deserving students of Livingston College/Rutgers University. It is administered by the Livingston College Office of the Dean.
